

Maison Guigone

Elegant townhouse for 6 in the heart of Burgundy wine region

Welcoming home close to centre of historic Beaune, with three bedrooms and two bathrooms

Maison Guigone...

The delightful Maison Guigone, just five minutes walk from the historic walled town of Beaune in Burgundy, is the perfect base for visitors who want to discover the rich wine heritage of this region.

You won't need a car to explore from this three-storey townhouse between the vineyards and the town. It's a short walk to the shops, restaurants and markets, and to the historic Hospices de Beaune, which was built as a refuge for the poor in the mid 15th century and now hosts the annual wine auction on the third Sunday in November.

The area is famous for its vineyards, and the local villages will be familiar to you from the labels of wine bottles, but you don't need to go far for a tasting - there are plenty of cellars in the town itself where you can enjoy the local wines. There are also plenty of restaurants close to Maison Guigone too, unless you'd rather pick up some fresh produce at the market and cook up your own delicious dinner in the well-equipped kitchen.

The owners of the house are well-travelled, and the classic yet contemporary decor of this home is enhanced by objects they have picked up around the world - it's a really charming home where you can make yourself very comfortable.
